

CRCA GUIDELINES & RULES

LATE ENTRIES AND SCRATCHES:

We ask that you enter on or before the posted 'Entry Deadline' so that we get a preliminary cattle count and can begin processing entries. Entries received after the deadline will be drawn last.

Late entries accepted based on availability of stalls and cattle. No fresh cattle. CRCA reserves the right to refuse entry after the deadline.

Scratching a 3-event entry (Futurity, Derby or Spectacular) after the entry deadline will result in a cattle charge of $220.

There is no charge to scratch a horse show class entry at any time before the class draw. Scratch after the draw you will be charged your full entry fees, even if you don't come to the show and you are in the draw! If you enter after the draw, the horse will go last after all horses in the draw and there is no guarantee of fresh cattle.
